

TIANA N. MORRIS

(206) 607-4168
morris@carneylaw.com

Tiana Morris joined Carney Badley Spellman as an associate attorney in its Construction Practice Group.

Ms. Morris earned her bachelor's degree in social science from Washington State University, and her master's degree in government policy and administration from Marylhurst University. She graduated from Seattle University School of Law in May 2022. During law school, Ms. Morris gained litigation experience at a personal injury law firm and worked in-house at a publicly traded SaaS company on commercial agreements and privacy issues. Following law school, Ms. Morris spent two years as a law clerk for Justice Johnson at the Washington Supreme Court.

Outside of work, Ms. Morris enjoys weightlifting, hiking with her dogs, and traveling.

Education

JD, Seattle University School of Law, Seattle WA, 2022

- Magna Cum Laude

MBA, Government Policy and Administration, Marylhurst University, Lake Oswego OR

BA, Business Administration, Washington State University, Pullman, WA, Summa Cum Laude

Bar and Court Admissions

State of Washington